Our Unitarian community consists of about 200 congregations that meet right across Britain. We gather for worship and fellowship, to create a caring community where all feel supported in our search for meaning and value. We are an open faith community celebrating diverse beliefs & aim to help people find their own spiritual path rather than defining it for them.

The TEMENOS Academy 'the perennial philosophy' learning of the Imagination

Edited message from

HRH The Prince of Wales

(Temenos patron)

The work of Temenos could not be more important. The great spiritual traditions we have inherited from the past form the basis of mankind's most civilised values & have an intensely practical relevance insofar as they bring a sense of balance to people's lives which is, to my mind, the hall-mark of a civilised person. This concern for our traditions is not to deny progress. It rather represents a care to do what we can to ensure for future generations the survival of civilised values and the maintenance of that vital thread of the continuity of tradition that links past and future. I myself will do all I can to help, preserve and encourage the wise and compassionate work for which Temenos stands.
