The TEMENOS Academy 'the perennial philosophy'

learning of the Imagination
Edited message from
HRH The Prince of Wales
(Temenos patron)

The work of Temenos could not be more important. The great spiritual traditions we have inherited from the past form the basis of mankind's most civilised values & have an intensely practical relevance insofar as they bring a sense of balance to people's lives which is, to my mind, the hallmark of a civilised person. This concern for our traditions is not to deny progress. It rather represents a care to do what we can to ensure for future generations the survival of civilised values and the maintenance of that vital thread of the continuity of tradition that links past and future. I myself will do all I can to help, preserve and encourage the wise and compassionate work for which Temenos stands .
